Performance Agreement

Seattle Spark Trio · seattlesparktrio.com · bookthelook@seattlesparktrio.com

This agreement is between Katherine Irving, doing business as Seattle Spark Trio ("the Trio"), and the client named below.

1. Event details

Client name(s): _____

Client phone / email: _____

Event and date: _____

Venue and address: _____

Performance start and end: _____

Indoors or outdoors: _____

Day-of contact (name, phone): _____

2. Fee

Performance length	Fee
Up to 1 hour	$450
Up to 1½ hours	$650
Up to 2 hours	$825
Up to 3 hours	$1,275

Package selected: _____ Total fee: $_____

- Deposit: a $250 non-refundable deposit reserves the date. It is applied to the total fee. The date is not held until the deposit is received.
- Balance: the remaining balance is due 7 days before the event.
- Extra time: if the client asks the Trio to play past the contracted end time and the Trio is able to, extra time is $125 per 15 minutes, due that day.
- Travel: events more than _____ miles from Seattle include a travel fee of $_____.

3. Cancellation

- If the client cancels 14 days or more before the event, the deposit is kept and nothing more is owed.
- If the client cancels less than 14 days before the event, 50% of the total fee is owed. The deposit counts toward that amount.
- If the Trio has to cancel, it will first try to provide a musician of equal quality in place of any player who can't attend. If it can't, every payment, including the deposit, will be refunded in full. That refund is the full extent of the Trio's responsibility.

- Neither party is responsible for failing to perform because of events beyond their control, such as severe weather, a natural disaster, a public health order, or the venue closing. In that case the Trio will work with the client to reschedule and apply the payments already made.

4. What the Trio needs on site

- Three armless chairs and a flat, level space of about 10 × 8 feet.
- Outdoor events: the Trio must be covered and shaded. Direct sun, rain, and temperatures below about 60°F or above about 90°F damage string instruments. If the conditions aren't safe for the instruments, the Trio may move to a covered spot or pause until it's safe. The fee still applies.
- Parking or a loading area within a reasonable walk, and a place to unpack.
- For events of 3 hours or longer, the client provides a meal or refreshments for the musicians.
- The Trio takes a 10-minute break for each hour of performance and will plan breaks around important moments (for example, the ceremony).

5. Music

The client may choose music from the Trio's repertoire. Special requests that need a new arrangement must be made at least 30 days before the event and may include an arrangement fee, which the Trio will quote first. The Trio will do its best to fulfill every request, but some pieces may not suit a string trio.

6. Photos and recordings

The client and guests may photograph and record the performance for personal use. The Trio may use photos or short clips of its own performance to promote the Trio, and will not use images of the client or guests without the client's permission.

7. General

The Trio members are independent musicians. This agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Washington. It is the whole agreement between the parties, and any change must be made in writing and signed by both.
